

Single Traffic Light

This is a sample page of the computer control program to run one set of traffic lights.

In order to complete this page you need to have information about the junction, some pictures and a summary of the program showing the sequence of '1' and '0'

This is only a sample page

Summary

Name

Class

Date